MEDIA ALERT

MULTI MILLION-DOLLAR HOMES OPEN THEIR DOORS FOR MIDWEST HOME MAGAZINE'S LUXURY HOME TOUR

What: Tour 15 one-of-a-kind Twin Cities homes during the tenth annual Midwest Home Luxury Home Tour. Discover the latest home and design trends on a self-guided tour through palatial custom homes built by Twin Cities premier home builders. Homes are valued from $900,000 to $5,000,000.

Highlights: Siesta Deck. Master bedroom terrace made specifically for taking a nap on a breezy summer day. Wine Cellars. Bigger than ever: now more like rooms than cellars. Aspen-Like Homes. Grand beams, oversized-spaces, and exquisite stonework – these details create the rugged yet luxe mountain-living vibe. Secret Rooms. Hidden passageways that connect kids rooms from their closets, an "Alice in Wonderland Rabbit-hole" tunnel that leads to a playroom and bookcases that open to reveal secret rooms - this is the ultimate in luxury living.
New Room Function: The Outdoor Entertaining Prep Room. The latest must-have room function has ample space for food and beverage preparation, pool cubbies for towels and toys, and more.

When: For three consecutive weekends in June - open to the public for self-guided tours: June 11-13, 18-20 and 25-27, 2010.
Friday Hours: 1-7 p.m. Saturday and Sunday Hours: Noon-6 p.m.

Where: Homes are located throughout the Twin Cities in some of the most sought-after residential communities including: Blaine, Credit River Township, Deephaven, Edina, Minnetonka, Minnetonka Beach, Minnetrista, Prior Lake, St. Louis Park and Wayzata.

Tickets: Passport tickets are available for advance purchase at Twin Cities Caribou Coffee locations. Advance tickets cost $20 and allow one-time admittance into every home on the tour. Passports can also be purchased during the tour at the participating homes for $25. All proceeds benefit Minnesota Public Radio. For more details visit www.luxuryhometour.net
